Blessed Elena Guerra: The Apostle of the Holy Spirit

by Patti Mansfield

“FATHER, IN THE NAME OF JESUS,
SEND FORTH YOUR SPIRIT AND RENEW THE WORLD.”

It is a joy for me to write about my friend, Blessed Elena Guerra, whom I first met through my husband in 1991 when I was writing the Silver Jubilee edition of As By A New Pentecost. He told me that the story of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal could not be told without Elena! She was the first person beatified by Pope St. John XXIII who called her “the apostle of the Holy Spirit”. Some believe that it was her writings which inspired the Pope’s famous prayer: “Renew your wonders in this our day as by a New Pentecost.”

“O MARY, WHO BY THE WORK OF
THE HOLY SPIRIT, CONCEIVED THE SAVIOR, PRAY FOR US.”

Blessed Elena, foundress of the Oblate Sisters of the Holy Spirit in Lucca, lived from 1835 to 1914. In 1886 she became aware of her prophetic task to write to Pope Leo XIII, urging him to renew the Church through a return to the Holy Spirit. She wrote 10-12 confidential letters calling for renewed preaching on the Holy Spirit, “who is the one who forms the saints.” She desired to see the whole Church unite in constant prayer, as were Mary and the apostles in the upper room, awaiting the coming of the Spirit. “Oh, if only the invocation Veni! (Come)...would become as popular a prayer as the Ave (Hail Mary)!” Listen to her words so filled with fire!

“Pentecost is not over. In fact, it is continually going on in every time and in every place, because the Holy Spirit desired to give himself to all men and all who want him can always receive him, so we do not have to envy the apostles and the first believers; we only have to dispose ourselves like them to receive him well, and he will come to us as he did to them.” And again, “Who is hungry enough? Who is thirsty enough? Who is humble enough? Who is zealous enough?”

Pope Leo XIII then asked the entire Church to celebrate a solemn novena to the Holy Spirit each year between the feasts of the Ascension and Pentecost. Blessed Elena was pleased with the Holy Father’s efforts but disappointed with the bishops’ poor response to the call for an annual novena.

Blessed Elena formed prayer groups which she called “Permanent or Universal Cenacles.” Often, she was heard to exclaim, “Let us go to the Cenacle!”

Dear Readers of the Flame,

St. John Paul II penned this prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Holy Spirit, Spirit of Pentecost: help me to clarify what is ambiguous, give warmth to what is indifferent and to enlighten what is obscure, so that I may be for the world a true and generous witness of Christ's love because no one can live without love. Amen.

On most days I remember to pray that prayer. I believe it captures what we need to do in our time and reminds us that we can only do it by living in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Clarify what is ambiguous: it is easy to get confused. Pressures externally from our culture and internally from our broken human nature seek to squeeze us into a worldly mold. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth. The Holy Spirit helps us see things clearly and act courageously.

In C.S. Lewis' book The Silver Chair, Eustace Scrubb and Jill Pole are sent from our world to Narnia to find a prince who disappeared after the tragic death of his mother, the queen. Jill was given four signs that would help them find the prince.

The first sign was that Eustace would find an old friend as soon as they arrived in Narnia. Jill told Eustace about the sign as she arrived. Eustace watched an old man get onto a boat and sail away. Later he learned that the old man was a friend who had aged 50 years while Eustace aged one year. Sign one was muffed.

The second sign directed them to travel north to the city of the ancient giants. They started off in the right direction with Puddleglum, their guide. However, they were soon distracted by foul weather and the fair promise of a queen like person who told them where they could get a warm bed and hot food. These distractions led them to miss the city. They walked by the ruined city of ancient giants. Instead, they were trapped in a different city of giants who were going to have them as the main entrée for their late fall festival! Muff two!

The third sign was that they would find writing on a stone of that city of ancient giants. They were to do what the stone said. From the city of their capture they could read the message on the ruined walls of the ancient city. It read: UNDER ME. Somehow, they had to break out of the city where they were on the menu and get underneath the ruined city of the ancient giants. This they did only to be immediately captured and led off through a series of underground caverns, tunnels and lakes for days. Though this seemed to be the most depressing part of their trip, it was the only part so far in which they were actually following a sign.

The fourth sign was this: You will know the lost prince, if you find him, by this: that he will be the first person you have met in your travels who will ask you to do something in my name, in the name of Aslan. The underlings led Eustace, Jill and Puddleglum to an underground city of sorts. The queen-like person they had met earlier was the one who ruled it. However, she was out of the city, putting the finishing touches on her takeover of the Upperworld. Instead, Eustace, Jill and Puddleglum met her lackey, a handsome but quirky person who was in charge while she was away. After a meal of sorts, this person became even quirkiest. He was locked in a silver chair for a period of time during the night during which he went raving mad. While under this spell he begged the Upperworld people to release him from the chair. It was the last thing they wanted to do. He was raving like a lunatic. Then he shouted, I beg you, in the name of Aslan, release me!

When Eustace, Jill and Puddleglum heard the name Aslan, they froze. This was the fourth sign. Are we to release this lunatic? They decided to do it. They reasoned that Aslan did not say they would not be killed or that everything would turn out OK. Aslan simply said that they needed to do what the person requested. So Jill, Eustace and Puddleglum said good-bye to each other and then undid the fasteners to release the raving man.

Sure enough, once the man was released he bounded across the room and grabbed a sword. However, he took the sword and struck the silver chair. He then introduced himself as the missing prince now set free from the curse of the underworld queen.

The point is this: we have been given many signs from God that reveal him. However, due to our fallen world and fallen nature, we do not always remember them, understand them or act upon them. God, in his mercy, continues to guide and assist us. And as we act in the name of Jesus, we cut through the ambiguity of this world and fulfill God's plan.

The Holy Spirit is our helper and friend. Instead of getting caught up in the confusion of the world, and the discouragement it leads to, let us seek to be filled ever more fully with the Holy Spirit. Let us soak our thinking in the Word of God and the revealed truth of the Catholic faith. Then, acting in the power of the Holy Spirit, we will be able to clarify what is ambiguous, give warmth to what is indifferent and enlighten what is obscure. We will become true witnesses of the love of Jesus Christ, and lead others to the source of true meaning and love. For no one can live without love.

In Christ,

Fr. Bob Franco

The goal of the series is to deepen our walk with Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. For the four sessions in August, September, and October, our study and discussion will be on the module Reflecting Christ to the World. We will look at the character traits of a mature Catholic Christian life and also learn how to grow in them.

NOTE: If you signed up for the earlier modules, you are already part of the group and do not have to sign-up again.

Each session will begin with a time of praise and worship, followed by a teaching on the topic of the evening. Since Zoom allows “breakout rooms” within a larger meeting, we will then break into small groups for a time of discussion. At the end of the evening, everyone will come back together for any announcements and closing prayer.

Forgiveness Retreat

PRESENTED BY

Deacon Dave Pecot

*Saturday, October 30, 2021
St. Adalbert Church,
Keller Center Hall, in Berea.*

Did you ever wonder how the Prodigal Son responded to his father's forgiveness? We know the father celebrated his return, but we have nothing recorded about how the prodigal responded to the forgiveness given him. Come and experience the power of God's forgiveness in your own life and how forgiveness changes how we interact with the Father.

God promised us he will forgive every sin and forget every sin; then why do we struggle with the sins of our past? What must we do in response to God's forgiveness and his forgetting our sins? What happens if we cannot forgive the sins people have inflicted upon us?

The woman at the well never asked for forgiveness nor did the woman caught in adultery, yet Jesus restores them. Can we expect that kind of forgiveness if we stand before Jesus?

All these questions and more will be answered during this retreat on October 30th.

From her early years as an educator, she wrote many pamphlets and books urging people to return to the Holy Spirit. St. John Bosco told her, "You have a pen of gold." That "pen of gold" was wielded to compose not only letters to the Pope but many beautiful prayers to the Holy Spirit. Elena used the invocation of Pope Leo XIII in a Holy Spirit Chaplet that is used as a Pentecost Novena. It is a plea for each of the seven sanctifying gifts of the Spirit with a prayer that is repeated seven times for each gift: "Father, in the name of Jesus, send forth your Spirit and renew the world." Followed by an invocation to Our Lady, "O Mary, who by the work of the Holy Spirit, conceived the Savior, pray for us." At the end of the Chaplet, there are three additional invocations to Our Lady and a Hail Mary.

In her ninth letter to the Pope on October 15, 1900, Elena begged him to exhort all Catholics to pray for the new century and to place it under the sign of the Holy Spirit. "Most Holy Father, I humbly present with confidence to your Holiness that the new century may begin with the hymn Veni Creator Spiritus to be sung at the beginning of the Mass of the first day of the year."

And on January 1, 1901, the first day of the first year in the twentieth century, Pope Leo intoned the Veni Creator Spiritus in the name of the whole Church. On the same day, an event took place in Topeka, Kansas, that marked the beginning of a great revival in the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit destined to sweep this country and around the world. In February 1967, on the Duquesne Weekend, we sang the Veni Creator Spiritus and, as they say, "The rest is history."

Patti Mansfield was on the Duquesne Weekend and is author of "As By a New Pentecost." She is a recipient of the Papal Medal, Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice.
